Local Government Road Safety Award

Nominations are invited from Western Australian Local Governments who wish to be recognised for their contribution to road safety.

The Local Government Road Safety Award will be presented as part of an awards ceremony at the 3rd International Road Safety Conference to be held in Perth from 29-30 November 2007. The awards ceremony will take place on Thursday, 29 November 2007.

The award will acknowledge the Local Government which demonstrates a strong commitment to road safety through targeted implementation of road safety projects or initiatives in the community.

Award nominations will be judged by the International Road Safety Conference Organising Committee with the winner receiving trophy award and certificate of commendation.
